LOGBOOK

IN THE GLOBAL SOUTH

Chile is a long, narrow country located along the southwestern edge of South America, bordered by the Andes Mountains to the east and the Pacific Ocean to the west. It is a land where nature reveals itself in every form.

From the vast desert in the north to the predominantly agricultural central region, and further south to landscapes of forests, volcanoes, and lakes, the country unfolds in striking contrasts. In the far south, Chilean Patagonia emerges as a breathtaking world of scattered islands, archipelagos, fjords, ancient glaciers, and largely untouched landscapes.

SKORPIOS CRUISES

More than 45 years ago, our parents founded this remarkable shipping company, Skorpios Cruises, which operates throughout Chilean Patagonia.

Over the years, we have built, adapted, and refined many of our itineraries to meet the evolving demands of both international and domestic travelers. Today, we are proud to carry forward their legacy, continuing along the path they set while maintaining the service and quality that have always defined us.

With this in mind, we present the Skorpios Routes Manual—also known as the Logbook—designed to provide our Tour Operators and Travel Agencies with a clearer and more detailed understanding of each program.

Our ongoing challenge and commitment is to continue growing and expanding maritime destinations throughout Chilean Patagonia.

CHONOS ROUTE

The Chonos Route cruise aboard the motor vessel Skorpions II covers 800 miles through channels and fjords where nature remains largely untouched, heading toward the San Rafael Glacier in the Northern Ice Field.

This vast ice mass is located in Chilean Patagonia, in southern Chile, between latitudes 46° and 47° south. It covers an area of approximately 4,400 km², extending 100 km from north to south and about 40 km from east to west, with its ice distributed among approximately seven main glaciers.

The San Rafael Glacier, one of the closest tidewater glaciers to the equator, flows from Mount San Valentín over a distance of 15 km, descending into the calm waters of Laguna San Rafael, where it releases its spectacular ice formations.

A vast territory of islands, archipelagos, and channels; a distant horizon where life can flourish—a place that once served as both origin and refuge for the inhabitants of this southern land. This is the homeland of the Chonos people.

CHILE

Welcome aboard the motor vessel Skorpios II and the Chonos Route, in a sea peppered with islands; a land where volcanoes and glaciers sculpt illusions, and where legends come to life in the secret fjords... this is the Skorpios territory in the Northern Ice Field of Chilean Patagonia... we invite you to discover it.

WELCOME ABOARD.

The Cruise

TO THE SAN RAFAEL GLACIER

We set sail aboard the Skorpios II motor vessel every Saturday, returning on Thursdays from October through April. Departures take place from the Skorpios Terminal in the city of Puerto Montt, located 1,000 km south of Santiago and easily accessible by air or land.

This 5-night maritime journey begins as we navigate 800 miles toward an awe-inspiring encounter with the ancient ice of the San Rafael Glacier. Along the way, we sail through spectacular archipelagos, channels, and gulfs, exploring a remarkable territory that is home to cities and towns such as Quemchi and Dalcahue, the fishing village of Puerto Aguirre, and the Barrientos and Conejos islets.

Each destination reveals, in all its splendor, the richness of a vibrant natural environment—best experienced in the Quitralco Fjord, with its hot springs and excursions across vast, island-dotted waters.

ROUTE CHONOS

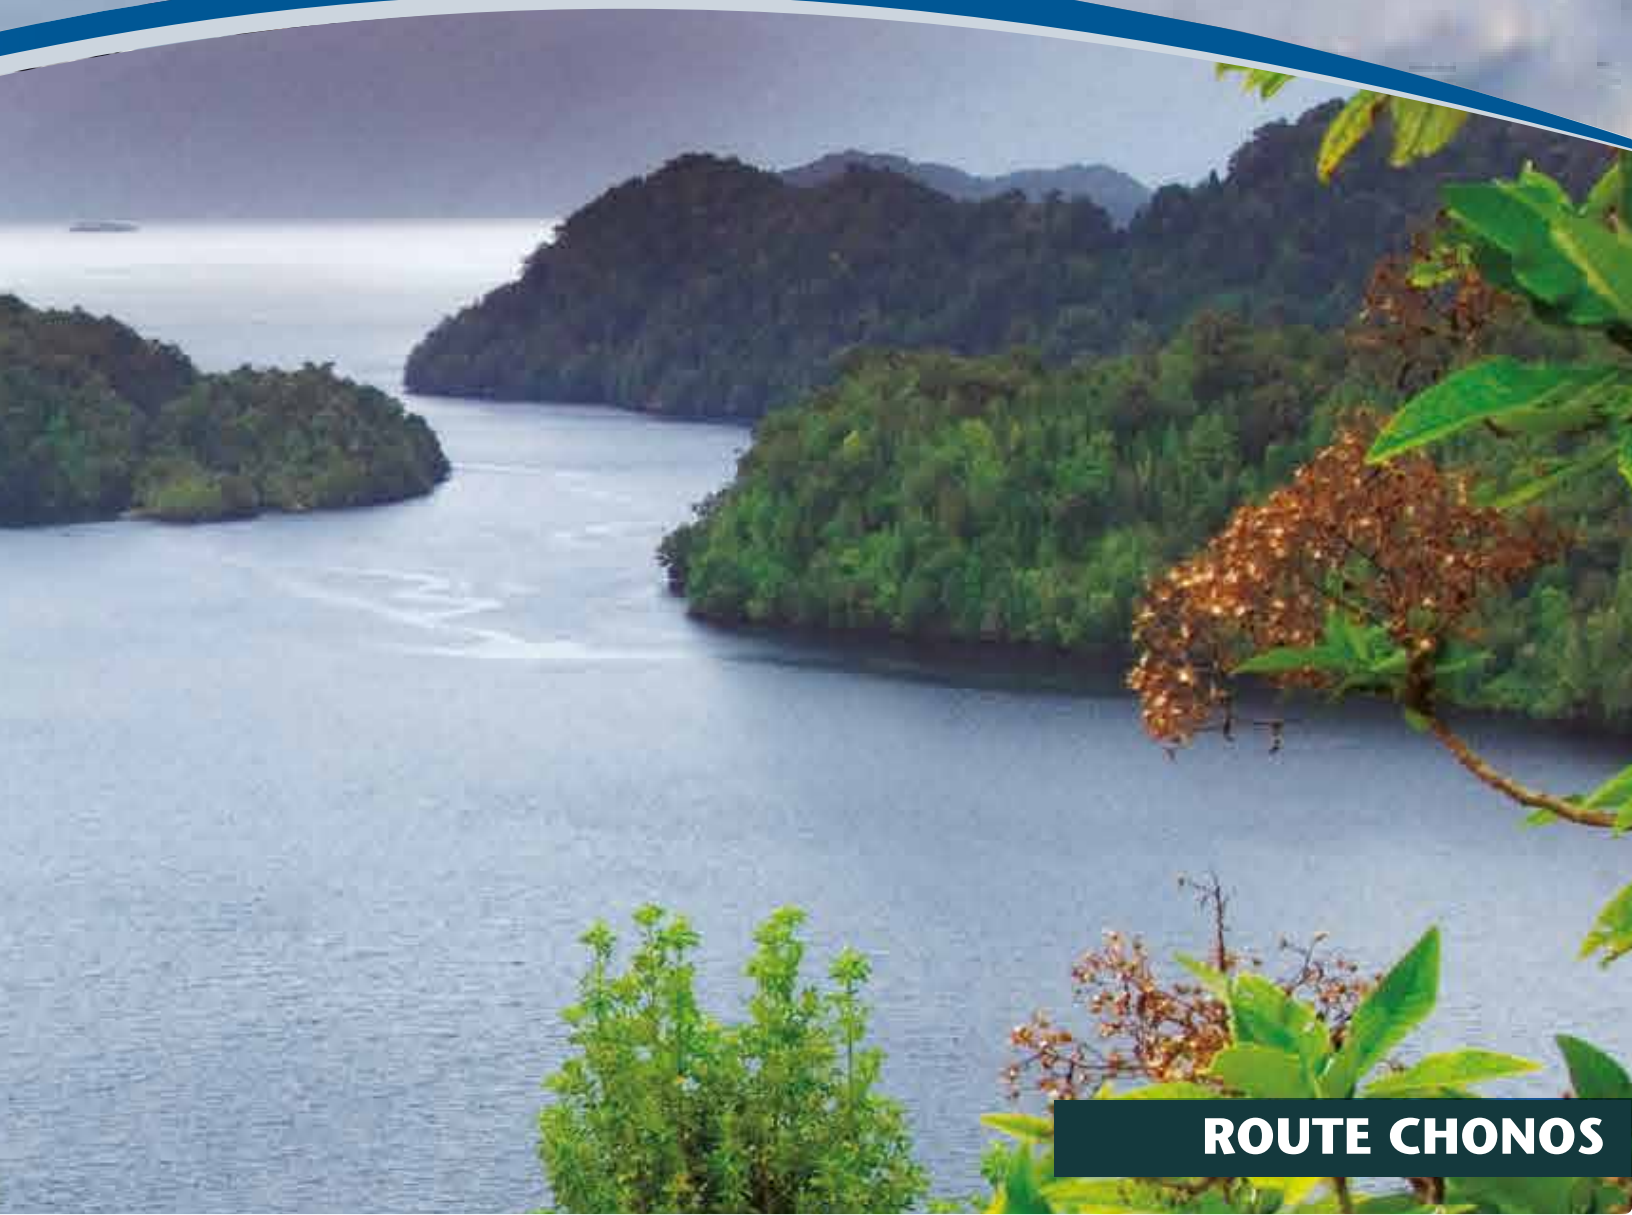

Fjords and Channels

SAILING TO THE NORTHERN ICE FIELD

On this voyage, we set sail from the Tenglo Channel, navigating through the spectacular archipelagos of Llanquihue, Chiloé, and the Chonos. Along the way, we pass through the Moraleda, Ferronave, Pilcomayo, Costa, and Témpanos channels; Pérez Norte, Leucayec, Yal, Lemuy, Dalcahue, Quicaví, and Calbuco; the gulfs of Ancud and Corcovado; the Quitrusco Fjord; and the San Rafael Lagoon in the Northern Ice Field.

This journey allows us to explore cities, towns, and picturesque fishing villages, as well as the Quitrusco Hot Springs—all crowned by the imposing San Rafael Glacier. An unforgettable experience and a unique opportunity to reconnect with ourselves.

How to Get Here?

THERE ARE SEVERAL WAYS TO REACH OUR EMBARKATION PORTS, DEPENDING ON THE ROUTE YOU CHOOSE:

CHONOS ROUTE – QUINTUPEU FJORD ROUTE – NOMADS OF PATAGONIA ROUTE

Cruises depart from and return to the city of Puerto Montt, the capital of the Los Lagos Region, located 1,000 km south of Santiago and considered the gateway to Patagonia.

You can reach the city by air via El Tepual Airport, where two airlines operate more than 15 flights daily. It's also possible to travel by land, either by car—Skorpios offers free parking at its terminal—or by bus, with services departing from Santiago to Puerto Montt's bus terminal.

Another common option is to enter via Argentina through Bariloche, crossing either the Paso Cardenal Samoré or the scenic Cruce de Lagos.

Antes de Embarcar

COM BASE EM NOSSA EXPERIÊNCIA, GOSTARÍAMOS DE OFERECER ALGUMAS DICAS ÚTEIS PARA SUA VIAGEM COM A SKORPIOS CRUZEIROS:

- Por se tratar de um cruzeiro de exploração, recomendamos levar roupas adequadas para as excursões. Calçados confortáveis para caminhada ou botas de trekking são essenciais, assim como calças de secagem rápida e roupas impermeáveis. Camadas de fleece, gorros e jaquetas técnicas são altamente recomendados para proteção contra o frio e o vento. Uma mochila pequena também será útil para as excursões em terra.
- Na Rota Chonos, recomendamos levar roupa de banho, pois o itinerário inclui uma visita às Termas de Quitr Alco.
- Também sugerimos levar roupas em estilo esporte fino para a festa de despedida ou o Jantar do Capitão.
- Não se esqueça de levar óculos de sol e protetor solar, pois a radiação UV está presente durante todo o ano, mesmo na Patagônia.
- Uma câmera digital ou de vídeo é ideal para registrar as impressionantes paisagens da Patagônia — não se esqueça de levar cartões de memória extras e carregador de bateria. Um pequeno binóculo também é recomendado para observar aves e a vida selvagem à distância.
- Recomendamos que você leia previamente sobre glaciares, pois isso ajudará a compreender melhor os termos glaciológicos utilizados por nossos guias.
- Lembre-se de levar uma quantidade adequada de medicamentos de uso pessoal, já que não estarão disponíveis para compra a bordo nem nas cidades visitadas durante a viagem.

Personal safety is the primary responsibility of each passenger; therefore, any actions that may compromise their physical or mental well-being must be avoided, both on board and during excursions.
- Gratuities are not included in the ticket price. Passengers may present gratuities at the end of the voyage in a sealed envelope to the Captain, who, in accordance with SKORPIOS tradition, will distribute them among all crew members. A suggested gratuity is USD 50 per passenger.
- SKORPIOS reserves the right to cancel a cruise up to 30 days prior to departure if the minimum number of passengers required for operation is not met. In such cases, the Company will first offer relocation on another SKORPIOS cruise, covering the costs of reissuing airline tickets or alternative arrangements, subject to prior quotation and approval by Cruceros Skorpios.
